

Siouxland CARES

YOU ARE INVITED

Siouxland CARES About Substance Abuse cordially invites you to attend and participate in the "Iowa Caring Communities Tour" on Thursday, November 2, 2017, from 11:45 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. in the Kermit Dahlen Training Center, Jackson Recovery Centers, 3500 W. 4th Street, Sioux City, Iowa.

A light lunch will be available from 11:00 a.m. to 11:45 a.m. for a cost of $7.00. Please R.S.V.P. for both the session and, most importantly, if you want lunch by Friday, October 27 at 3 p.m. Space is limited so please R.S.V.P. today!!

The topics of this session will focus on "Opioid Misuse: Rescue, Recovery and Reduction Strategies to Curb Trends in Iowa" by Dale Woolery, Iowa Office of Drug Control Policy, "Community Counter Drug Task Force Operations" by Lieutenant Colonel Chuck Connors, and "Youth High-Risk Behavior Prevention - Trends & Innovations" by Peter Komendowski, President, Partnership for a Drug Free Iowa.

This is also a listening post for these state leaders and they would like to hear our local issues and concerns.

CONTACT US:

cares@longlines.com

Follow us on Facebook.

Follow us on Twitter.

Follow us on Instagram.

FACT

Parents, you are the most powerful influence on your child's behavior.
Source: SAMHSA

Know the facts...Be In the Know...
Let's Start Talking!!!!

Looking for some helpful websites?

www.drugfreeinfo.org

www.samhsa.gov

www.iowapoisson.org

www.elks.org

www.jacksonrecovery.com

www.iowa.gov/onep

www.stopbullying.gov

www.siouxlandmentalhealth.com
